

Certificate of participation and achievement

This certificate is awarded to

DANIIL SOLOMIN

in recognition of their active participation and valuable contribution to the international Epistemic Justice Futures Project, held from March to April 2026.

The project brought together students from nine universities worldwide, all of which are members of ALINCO, and focused on the development of transcultural presentation and communication skills. By means of student-led presentations, facilitated breakout discussions, and collaborative exploration of cultural and global issues, participants demonstrated the following skills and competences: research and analysis, cross-cultural communication, presentation and public speaking, teamwork, facilitating and chairing, reporting and synthesis, and the ability to engage with diverse perspectives.

Brno, 20th April 2026

dr. Libor Štěpánek
Director of MU Language Centre