

CERTIFICATE

of participation

MYKHAILO HEREVYCH

*Doctor of Philosophy in Law
Associate Professor of the Department of Theory and History of State and Law*

in the scientific internship:

«HORIZONS OF SCIENCE:
ACADEMIC DEVELOPMENT
ACCORDING TO
EUROPEAN STANDARDS»

Martin Telvák
Deputy Director of Institute of professional development

October 6 – November 16
Slovakia, Bratislava 2025

INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

1.	Research Excellence in Modern Universities: International Standards and European Research Area Framework	30 hours
2.	Interactive Research Training Methods: Innovative Approaches to Scientific Inquiry and Academic Skill Development	24 hours
3.	Digital Research Technologies: Online Databases, Open Science Platforms, and Remote Collaboration Tools	18 hours
4.	Scientific Communication Strategies: Academic Writing, High-Impact Publishing, and International Research Dissemination	34 hours
5.	National Research System Transformation: Aligning Scientific Priorities with European Research Standards	20 hours
6.	Cross-Cultural Research Collaboration: Building International Scientific Networks and Joint Research Initiatives	20 hours
7.	European Research Methodology: Horizon Europe Guidelines and EU Research Framework Implementation	10 hours
8.	Case Studies from Leading European Research Institutions: Best Practices in Scientific Excellence and Innovation	8 hours
9.	Individual Research Consultation: Personal Scientific Development Planning and Academic Career Strategies	8 hours
10.	Research Workshop Participation: Advanced Methodology Training and Grant Application Development	8 hours

institute of professional development

53914589

TOTAL: 180 teaching / working hours, 6 credits ECTS
The curriculum of scientific and pedagogical internship is fully carried out

121944861115

CERTIFICATE
OF PARTICIPATION
IN THE SCIENTIFIC
INTERNSHIP